135th Annual General Meeting of The International Football
Association Board

Decisions

Zurich, 17 March 2021
SEC/2021-C367/bru
Dear Sir or Madam,

The 135th Annual General Meeting (AGM) of The International Football Association Board (The IFAB) took place by videoconference on 5 March 2021 and was chaired by the President of the FA of Wales, Kieran O’Connor. The main decisions taken and discussions held at the AGM are outlined below.

In order to ensure that preparations to implement the Law changes can begin without delay and to assist with the translation of the Laws of the Game, all the changes are set out in the accompanying document (Law Changes 2021/22), which is also available on The IFAB’s website.

Downloadable versions of the full Laws of the Game 2021/22 book will be available on our website shortly. Printed copies will be distributed in May/June. As usual, each confederation and national FA will receive five printed copies of the Laws of the Game 2021/22; each national FA will also receive one copy for each of its FIFA referees and assistant referees.

Pre-orders for additional copies of the Laws of the Game 2021/22 can be made through The IFAB’s webshop at shop.theifab.com as from 23 March, at the unchanged price of CHF 3.00 per copy. To ensure the correct number of copies is produced, please place your order by 23 April 2021 at the latest. Please note that late orders may incur greater production costs and thus the price per copy may be higher.

1. Laws of the Game 2021/22

The members approved various changes and clarifications to the Laws of the Game 2020/21 at the AGM; the exact wording is in the aforementioned enclosure.

Main Law change: Law 12 – Fouls and Misconduct: handball

As the interpretation of handball incidents has not always been consistent due to incorrect applications of the Law, the members confirmed that not every touch of a player’s hand/arm with the ball is an offence.

In terms of the criterion of the hand/arm making a player’s body “unnaturally bigger”, it was confirmed that referees should continue to use their judgment in determining the validity of the hand/arm’s position in relation to the player’s movement in that specific situation.

Following this clarification, it is a handball offence if a player:

- deliberately touches the ball with their hand/arm, for example moving the hand/arm towards the ball;
• touches the ball with their hand/arm when it has made their body unnaturally bigger. A player is considered to have made their body unnaturally bigger when the position of their hand/arm is not a consequence of, or justifiable by, the player’s body movement for that specific situation. By having their hand/arm in such a position, the player takes a risk of their hand/arm being hit by the ball and being penalised; or
• scores in the opponents’ goal:
  o directly from their hand/arm, even if accidental, including by the goalkeeper; or o immediately after the ball has touched their hand/arm, even if accidental.

Accidental handball that leads to a team-mate scoring a goal or creating a goal-scoring opportunity will no longer be considered an offence.

Other changes and clarifications
The other changes and clarifications approved for inclusion in the Laws of the Game 2021/22 are detailed in the aforementioned enclosure.

Laws of the Game 2021/22 effective as from 1 July
It was agreed that, to give players, coaches and match officials more time to become familiar with the changes to the Laws of the Game, the date on which they become effective will move from 1 June to 1 July. Competitions that start before that date may implement the changes earlier or delay their implementation until no later than the start of the next competition.

2. Concussion substitute trials
The members received an update on the early stages of the trials with concussion substitutes (for more details, see circular no. 21).

The IFAB and FIFA will continue to collect, analyse and discuss the football- and medical-related feedback and data that will inform any decisions about potential implementation in the Laws of the Game.

3. Increased number of substitutes (COVID-19-related temporary amendment)
The members also received an update on the temporary amendment to Law 3 – The Players, which allows the option of permitting teams to use up to five substitutes in games in top-level competitions, for club competitions ending by 31 December 2021 and national-team competitions ending by 31 July 2022 (for more details, see circular no. 21).
It was agreed that the changing impact of the pandemic on football will be kept under constant review to ensure appropriate action is taken in the future in relation to this temporary amendment.

4. Offside Law and video assistant referees (VARs)

The AGM also included a discussion of ideas related to the offside Law and an update from FIFA on the latest developments concerning innovations that could enable competitions with more limited budgets to use VAR technology.

The IFAB is very grateful for the support and the many suggestions from all areas of the football world, which help the Laws of the Game to evolve to make football, from grassroots to international level, even fairer, more accessible and more enjoyable.

We will maintain our global consultation so that the Laws of the Game continue to promote and protect fairness and integrity on the field of play.

Thank you for your attention – please contact us if you have any questions or enquiries.

Yours sincerely,

The IFAB

Laws 1, 2 and 4 – FIFA Quality Programme

There is a new section outlining the FIFA Quality Programme (FQP). Certain details regarding the FQP and the related standards have been removed from the Laws so that future FQP changes will not require Law changes. The resulting text changes are as follows:

Law 1 – The Field of Play

1. Field surface

Where artificial surfaces are used in competition matches between representative teams of national football associations affiliated to FIFA or international club competition matches, the surface must meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Programme for Football Turf or the International Match Standard, unless special dispensation is given by The IFAB.

The use of GLT must be stipulated in the competition rules.

Requirements and specifications of GLT
If GLT is used in competition matches, the competition organisers must ensure that the system (including any potentially permitted modifications to the goal frame or technology in the ball) is certified according to one of the following standards: meets the requirements of the FIFA Quality Programme for GLT.

- IMS – INTERNATIONAL MATCH STANDARD

An independent testing institute must verify the accuracy and functionality of the different technology providers’ systems in accordance with the FIFA Quality Programme for GLT. Where GLT is used, the referee must test the technology’s functionality before the match as set out in the Testing Manual. If the technology does not function in accordance with the Testing Manual, the referee must not use the GLT system and must report this to the appropriate authorities.

Where GLT is used, the referee must test the technology’s functionality before the match as set out in the Testing Manual.

The goalposts and crossbar of both goals must be the same shape, which must be square, rectangular, round, elliptical or a hybrid of these options.

It is recommended that all goals used in an official competition organised under the auspices of FIFA or confederations meet the requirements of the FIFA Quality Programme for Football Goals.

Explanation

- The goalposts and crossbar must be the same shape; both goals must be the same.
- A reference to the FIFA Quality Programme for Football Goals has been added.

11. Goal line technology (GLT)

Amended text

Principles of GLT

The indication of whether a goal has been scored must be immediate and automatically confirmed within one second by the GLT system only to the match officials (via the referee’s watch, by vibration and visual signal); it may also be sent to the video operation room (VOR).

Explanation

Where VARs are in use, the GLT signal may be sent to the video operation room (VOR).

Law 6 – The Other Match Officials

Amended text

The VAR and AVAR are the ‘video’ match officials (VMOs) and assist the referee in accordance with the Laws of the Game and the VAR protocol as determined by The IFAB.

Explanation

Clarification that if, for example, there is a stoppage towards the end of the game that is longer than the remaining playing time, the ‘additional time’ played (and shown by the fourth official) is the remaining playing time, not the length of the stoppage.
Law 11 – Offside

1. Offside position

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The hands and arms of all players, including the goalkeepers, are not considered. For the purposes of determining offside, the upper boundary of the arm is in line with the bottom of the armpit.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Explanation

The shoulder is not part of the arm for handball. It is therefore a part of the body with which a goal can be legitimately scored and so must be considered when judging offside.

Law 12 – Fouls and Misconduct

1. Direct free kick

<tr>
<td>A direct free kick is awarded if a player commits any of the following offences:</td>

| • bites or spits at someone on the team lists or a match official |

Explanation

A free kick/penalty kick can only be awarded for an offence committed against someone on the team lists (players, substitutes, substituted players, sent-off players and team officials) or a match official.

Old text (showing deletions)

It is an offence if a player:

- deliberately touches the ball with their hand/arm, including moving the hand/arm towards the ball
- scores in the opponents’ goal directly from their hand/arm, even if accidental, including by the goalkeeper
- after the ball has touched their or a team-mate’s hand/arm, even if accidental, immediately:
  - scores in the opponents’ goal
  - creates a goal-scoring opportunity
- touches the ball with their hand/arm when:
  - the hand/arm has made their body unnaturally bigger
  - the hand/arm is above/beyond their shoulder level (unless the player deliberately plays the ball which then touches their hand/arm)

The above offences apply even if the ball touches a player’s hand/arm directly from the head or body (including the foot) of another player who is close.

Except for the above offences, it is not an offence if the ball touches a player’s hand/arm:

- directly from the player’s own head or body (including the foot)
- directly from the head or body (including the foot) of another player who is close
- if the hand/arm is close to the body and does not make the body unnaturally bigger
- when a player falls and the hand/arm is between the body and the ground to support the body, but not extended laterally or vertically away from the body
It is an offence if a player:

- deliberately touches the ball with their hand/arm, for example moving the hand/arm towards the ball
- touches the ball with their hand/arm when it has made their body unnaturally bigger. A player is considered to have made their body unnaturally bigger when the position of their hand/arm is not a consequence of, or justifiable by, the player’s body movement for that specific situation. By having their hand/arm in such a position, the player takes a risk of their hand/arm being hit by the ball and being penalised
- scores in the opponents’ goal:
  - directly from their hand/arm, even if accidental, including by the goalkeeper
  - immediately after the ball has touched their hand/arm, even if accidental

Explanations

- Not every contact between the hand/arm and the ball is a handball offence.
- Referees must judge the ‘validity’ of the hand/arm’s position in relation to what the player is doing in that particular situation.
- Accidental handball by a team-mate before a goal is scored and accidental handball creating a goal-scoring opportunity have been removed as offences.

Law 12 – Fouls and Misconduct

2. Indirect free kick

An indirect free kick is awarded if a player:

- initiates a deliberate trick for the ball to be passed (including from a free kick or goal kick) to the goalkeeper with the head, chest, knee etc. to circumvent the Law, whether or not the goalkeeper touches the ball with the hands; the goalkeeper is penalised if responsible for initiating the deliberate trick
- commits any other offence

3. Disciplinary action – Cautions for unsporting behaviour

Amended text

There are different circumstances when a player must be cautioned for unsporting behaviour, including if a player:

- uses initiates a deliberate trick for the ball to be passed to pass the ball (including from a free kick or goal kick) to the goalkeeper with the head, chest, knee etc. to circumvent the Law, whether or not the goalkeeper touches the ball with the hands; the goalkeeper is cautioned if responsible for initiating the deliberate trick

Explanation

The offence of using a ‘trick’ to circumvent the Law that prevents the goalkeeper from handling a deliberate kick from a team-mate will now apply at goal kicks. The goalkeeper is cautioned if responsible for initiating the ‘trick’.
Law 12 – Fouls and Misconduct

4. Restart of play after fouls and misconduct

Amended text

If the ball is in play and a player commits a physical offence inside the field of play against:

- an opponent – an indirect or direct free kick or penalty kick
- a team-mate, substitute, substituted or sent-off player, team official or a match official – a direct free kick or penalty kick
- any other person – a dropped ball

All verbal offences are penalised with an indirect free kick.

If the referee stops play for an offence committed by a player, inside or outside the field of play, against an outside agent, play is restarted with a dropped ball, unless a free kick is awarded for leaving the field of play without the referee’s permission.

Explanation

A free kick/penalty kick can only be awarded for an offence committed against someone on the team lists (players, substitutes, substituted players, sent-off players and team officials) or a match official. If play is stopped because of an incident involving any other person, animal, object etc. (outside agent), play restarts with a dropped ball, except where a free kick is awarded for leaving the field of play without the referee’s permission.

Video Assistant Referee (VAR) protocol

4. Procedures

Additional text

Incapacitated VAR, AVAR or replay operator

Law 6 – The Other Match Officials stipulates: “Competition rules must state clearly who replaces a match official who is unable to start or continue and any associated changes.” In matches using VARs, this also applies to replay operators.

As special training and qualifications are needed to be a video match official (VMO)/replay operator, the following principles must be included in competition rules:

- A VAR, AVAR or replay operator who is unable to start or continue may only be replaced by someone who is qualified for that role
- If no qualified replacement can be found for the VAR or replay operator,* the match must be played/continue without the use of VARs
- If no qualified replacement can be found for the AVAR,* the match must be played/continue without the use of VARs unless, in exceptional circumstances, both teams agree in writing that the match may be played/continue with only the VAR and replay operator

*This does not apply where there is more than one AVAR/replay operator.

Explanation

Competitions must include in their rules the principles to be followed if a video match official (VMO) or replay operator (RO) becomes incapacitated before or during a match.

Written permission to use VARs is only required from FIFA.
