INSTRUCTIONS ON THE

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
Number of Players.	LAW I. The game should be played by Eleven players on each side.	Six a side and similar irregular competitions at which gate money is taken are forbidden, unless the consent of the local affiliated Association has been obtained. Where two affiliated Associations cover the same area, the permission must be obtained from the senior Association.
Dimensions of Field of Play.	The field of play shall be as shown in the plan at the end of these Laws, subject to the following provisions: The dimensions of the field of play shall be—maximum length, 130 yards; minimum length, 100 yards; maximum breadth, 100 yards; minimum breadth, 50 yards.
Marking out ground.	The field of play shall be marked by boundary lines. The lines at each end are the goal-lines, and the lines at the sides are the touch-lines. The touch-lines shall be drawn at right angles with the goal-lines. A flag with a staff not less than 5 ft. high	Flag-staffs with pointed tops must not be used. The touch and goal-lines must not be marked by a V-shaped rut. (International Board, June 16th, 1902.)

LAWS OF THE GAME.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
	Secretaries are recommended to ascertain that all competitions in which their clubs compete are properly sanctioned. Matches are forbidden on Sundays.
Refuse to sanction play if danger is likely to accrue to players from the state of the ground. As to the weather, use your own judgment, but do not needlessly spoil sport.	The size 115 yards by 75 yards is the most general.
Short flag-staffs are dangerous, hence the minimum height of 5 feet. The Referee must not allow a corner flag-staff to be removed even for the	The goal-line must be marked out from corner to corner, including the goal.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
	LAW I (continued). shall be placed at each corner. A half-way line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark, and a circle with a 10 yards radius shall be made round it.
The Goals.	The goals shall be upright posts fixed on the goal-lines, equi-distant from the corner flag staffs, 8 yards apart, with a bar across them 8 feet from the ground. The maximum width of the goal-posts and the maximum depth of the cross-bar shall be 5 inches.
The Goal Area.	Lines shall be marked 6 yards from each goal-post at right angles to the goal-lines for a distance of 6 yards, and these shall be connected with each other by a line parallel to the goal-lines; the space within these lines shall be the goal area.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
convenience of the player taking a corner-kick.	A half-way line is necessary on all grounds. See that the one yard area within which the corner kick must be taken is marked out.
The Referee must caution any player wilfully displacing flags or goal-posts, or pulling down the bar, and if repeated he should order the offender off the field of play.	The surface of the bars or posts facing the field of play or otherwise must not be more than five inches in width. Tape or any substance not of a rigid nature, must not be used in the place of a bar. Goal nets are strongly recommended. Have the goal - posts and bars painted white so as to be distinctly seen. Provide light coloured corner flags. See that the goal nets are properly pegged down and in order before every match, and that there are no holes or possible openings for the escape of the ball.	Goal-keepers to save a shot or to get hold of the ball sometimes seize the bar and pull it down. Any player wilfully displacing a flag or goal-post, or bar, is guilty of misconduct.
	(See Plan on Page 30.)

The Penalty Area.	LAW I (continued). Lines shall be marked 18 yards from each goal-post at right angles to the goal-lines for a distance of 18 yards, and these shall be connected with each other by a line parallel to the goal-lines; the space within these lines shall be the penalty area. A suitable mark shall be made opposite the centre of each goal, 12 yards from the goal-line; this shall be the penalty kick mark.
The Ball.	The circumference of the ball shall not be less than 27 inches, nor more than 28 inches. The outer casing of the ball must be of leather, and no material shall be used in the construction of the ball which would constitute a danger to the players.
Dimensions of Field of Play and Weight of Ball in International Matches.	In International matches, the dimensions of the field of play shall be—maximum length, 120 yards; minimum length, 110 yards; maximum breadth, 80 yards; minimum breadth, 70 yards; and at the commencement of the game the weight of the ball shall be from 13 to 15 ounces.
Duration of Game.	LAW 2. The duration of the game shall be 90 minutes, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
	The ball should be supplied by the home club. See that the ball is fully inflated, and that there are reserve balls close at hand.
Refers to International Contests only.
The Referee must allow for time wasted, or lost, through accident or		If you wish to play short time the Referee must be notified. This

	LAW 2 (continued.)
Choice of Goals.	The winners of the toss shall have the option of kick-off or choice of goals.
The Kick-Off.	The game shall be commenced by a place-kick from the centre of the field of play in the direction of the opponents' goal-line; the opponents shall not approach within 10 yards of the ball until it is kicked off, nor shall any player on either side pass the centre of the ground in the direction of his opponents' goal until the ball is kicked off.	A PLACE-KICK is a kick at the ball while it is on the ground in the centre of the field of play. If this Law is not complied with the kick-off must be taken over again. (International Board, June 15th, 1903.) The practice of kicking-off by persons other than the players competing in a match is prohibited, except in Charity matches. (Decision of Council, March 25th, 1907.)

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
other cause, and it is desirable that the two captains should be informed when such allowance is made. Unless a Referee is notified to the contrary by the two captains he must under ordinary circumstances continue the game for 90 minutes. There is no power to set aside the Rules of Cup and other Competitions where the time to be played is specified.		may only be done by the mutual agreement of both captains.
Note which side kicked off. (See Instructions to Referees on Law 13.)
Referees should notice that a free kick must not be awarded for any breach of this Law. It is their duty to see the kick-off properly taken in the direction of the opposite goal; also that back kicking and encroaching must not be allowed. Any player wilfully encroaching should first be cautioned, and, on a repetition, be ordered off the field of play. After the ball has been properly kicked off, the second and other players may play in any direction.	The practice of getting an outside person to kick-off in a match is forbidden, except in Charity matches.	Many players, when the whistle sounds for the start, run inside the 10 yards' circle. This is wrong, as the game commences with the kick-off, not with the Referee's signal.

	LAW 2 (continued) .
Ends to be Changed at Half-Time. The Interval. Re-starting Game.	LAW 3. Ends shall only be changed at half-time. The interval at half-time shall not exceed five minutes, except by consent of the Referee. After a goal is scored the losing side shall kick off, and after the change of ends at half-time the ball shall be kicked off by the opposite side from that which originally did so; and always as provided in Law 2.	Players have a right to an interval of 5 minutes at half-time. (Decision of Council, January 15th, 1906.)
How a Goal is Scored.	LAW 4. Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal shall be scored when the ball has passed between the goal-posts under the bar, not being thrown, knocked on, nor carried by any player of the attacking side.	The whole of the ball must have passed over the goal-line, or touch-line, before it is out of play. KNOCKING ON and carrying are both forms of handling the ball.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
If in the opinion of the Referee the ball has not rolled completely over, or travelled the distance of its circumference, i.e., about 27 inches, he must order it back again to be kicked off properly. The Referee must not allow anyone to kick-off unless he is a player competing in the match. This order does not apply to Charity matches.
The Referee is distinctly authorised to prevent deliberate waste of time. (See Law 13.) He should use every endeavour to limit the half-time interval to 5 minutes, and not allow his consent to its extension to be assumed as a matter of course.		In competitions where after a drawn game an extra half-hour is necessary, the Captains must toss again for choice of ends, and play must be a quarter of an hour each way.
The words "not being thrown" cover a throw-in from touch, so that if a player throws the ball in from touch through the opponents' goal it would be a goal-kick for the defending side and not a goal. It is possible for the ball to roll all	The necessity for the goal-line between the posts being clearly marked is emphasised by the requirements of this Law.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
	LAW 4 (continued) .
If bar displaced.	If from any cause during the progress of the game the bar is displaced, the Referee shall have power to award a goal if in his opinion the ball would have passed under the bar if it had not been displaced.

 Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
along the goal-line, and for the greater part of it to be over the line, and yet not pass through the goal. The goal-keeper may be behind the goal-line and yet prevent a goal. A Referee must under no circumstances allow a goal unless he is absolutely satisfied that it is a goal. In catching the ball or fisting out, a goal-keeper sometimes allows the ball to pass into goal in mid air, and the Referee may consider that the whole of the ball crosses the line. If so, and he is in a good position to judge, he must give a goal. It is difficult to tell unless one is close up, hence the necessity for the Referee following the ball closely up and down the ground and trying to get a side view whenever he thinks a shot is about to be put in, or there is a scrimmage in front of the goal.
	It is important that secretaries should see that the bars are securely fixed to the posts.	.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
If Ball rebounds from goal-posts, &c.	LAW 4 (continued). The ball is in play if it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar, or a corner flag staff into the field of play. The ball is in play if it touches the Referee or a Linesman when in the field of play.
Ball crossing lines, out of Play.	The ball is out of play when it has crossed the goal-line or touch-line, either on the ground or in the air.
The throw-in.	LAW 5. When the ball is in touch, a player of the opposite side to that which played it out shall throw it in from the point on the touch-line where it left the field of play. The player throwing the ball must stand on the touch-line facing the field of play, and shall throw the ball in over his head with both hands in any direction, and it shall be in play when thrown in. A goal shall not be scored from a throw-in, and the thrower shall not again play until the ball has been played by another player.	TOUCH is that part of the ground on either side of the field of play.

 Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
The ball touching the Referee or a Linesman when he is in the field of play is still in play, though it might otherwise have gone into touch or over the goal-line. Linesmen should follow the game close to the touch-line and keep out of the field of play as much as possible.
The ball going into touch in mid air and afterwards alighting in the field of play is out of play.		The ball may roll along the touch-line or goal-line and still be in play. The whole of the ball must have passed over and be clear of the touch-line or goal-line before it is out of play.
The Linesman should point with his flag to the place where the ball went into touch and stand a little behind the thrower to watch the throw-in. If the player does not throw the ball in properly, the Referee must give a free kick. An improper throw would be one delivered over the shoulder, or with one hand giving the impetus and the other merely guiding the ball, or if the	Provide light - coloured flags for Linesmen.	The practice of claiming for the throw-in when the ball goes into touch is far too prevalent and is unnecessary. LET THE LINESMAN GIVE HIS DECISION. All the claiming in the world will not alter it, unless the Referee shall see fit to interfere.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
	LAW 5 (continued.) This Law is complied with if the player has any part of both feet on the line when he throws the ball in.
Off-side. See Diagrams. Pages 32 to 54.	LAW 6. When a player plays the ball, or throws it in from touch, any player of the same side who at such moment of playing or throwing-in is nearer to his opponents' goal-line is out of play, and may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent, or with the play, until the ball has been again played, unless there are at such moment of playing or throwing-in at least three of his opponents nearer their own goal-line. A player is not out of play when the ball is kicked off from goal, when a corner-kick is taken, when the ball has been last played by an opponent, or when he himself is within his own half of the field of play	It is not a breach of Law for a player simply to be in an off-side position, but only when in that position he causes the play to be affected. (Council, December 14th, 1903.) Some Referees award a free kick when a player is simply in an off-side position. This must not be done. (Council, 10th December, 1910.)

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
thrower had not some part of both feet on the touch line at the moment of throwing, or if the thrower merely dropped the ball and did not throw it. A player throwing-in the ball must face the field of play.
A player who is in his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is last played cannot be off-side. The point to notice is not where a player is when he plays the ball, but where he is at the moment it is played by a player of the same side. In the rush of a game a Referee is apt to lose sight of the positions of the field at every kick, yet he ought to educate himself to intuitively fix each change on his mind. If a player is in line with or behind the ball when		A player who is in his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is last played cannot be off-side. A player once off-side cannot put himself on-side. This can only be done for him in three ways:—(i.) If an opponent next plays the ball; (ii.) If he is behind the ball when it is next played by one of his own side; (iii.) If he has 3 opponents between him and their goal when the ball is played by one of his own side further from his opponents' goal than himself.

	LAW 6 (continued). at the moment the ball is played or thrown in from touch by any player of the same side.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
it is played he cannot possibly be off-side, but if he is in front of it he is liable to be so. Though a player cannot be off-side when an opponent last plays the ball, or when a corner-kick, or a goal-kick, is taken, this protection ceases the moment a second player plays the ball, so that a player not off-side when a corner-kick is taken, may, without having moved, be off-side as soon as the ball has been played. A player following up another of his own side who has the ball cannot be off-side. Players may be off-side when a free kick or penalty kick is taken, and when the ball is thrown in from touch. An opponent playing the ball puts a player on-side at once, but while standing off-side a player must not interfere in any way with an opponent or with the play. If a player is standing off-side, he is off-side until the ball is next played, even though sufficient opponents fall back to make three between him and their goal line.		The ball hitting the goal-post or bar and rebounding does not put a player on-side who was "off-side" when the ball was last played. Take care that when the ball is played by one of your own side you have 3 opponents between you and their goal-line or that you are in a line with or behind the ball. Can anything be simpler? If your opponent plays the ball, or the ball touches him in any way, you are on-side no matter where you stand, but when standing off-side you have no right to interfere with an opponent nor to station yourself so near the goal-keeper, or any other opponent, as to hamper his movements, or obstruct his sight of the ball. When a player finds he is in an off-side position it is his duty to keep clear of the play and neither interfere with nor inconvenience an opponent, nor make a pretence of doing so.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
	LAW 6 (continued).	If a player deliberately trips an opponent who is standing in an off-side position within the penalty area, and who does not attempt to play the ball or obstruct, a penalty kick should be awarded. A flag may be placed opposite the half-way line on each side of the field of play, but it must be at least one yard from the touch-line, and must have a staff not less than 5 feet high.
Goal-Kick.	LAW 7. When the ball is played behind the goal-line by a player of the opposite side, it shall be kicked off by any one of the players behind whose goal-line it went, within that half of the goal area nearest the point where the ball left the field of play ;
Corner-Kick.	but, if played behind by any one of the side whose goal-line it is, a player of the opposite side shall kick it from within one yard of the nearest corner flag-staff. In either case an opponent shall not be allowed within six yards of the ball until it is kicked off.	The corner flag-staff must not be removed when a corner-kick is taken.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
The International Board have made it plain that a player, who is in an off-side position, is bound to keep out of the way of the play, and that he is liable to be penalised if in any manner his presence causes any interference with the play. When the ball is kicked off from either goal no player is off-side. The provision of flags opposite the half-way line is optional. The object is to assist the Referee and Linesman to determine the position of the half-way line when they are at a distance or when the line has become indistinct.
It is the duty of the Referee to see that goal-kicks are properly taken within that half of the goal area nearest the point where the ball went out.
It is the duty of the Referee to see that corner-kicks are properly taken, and on the side on which the ball goes out. If the player takes a corner-kick, and the ball rebounds to him after striking the goal-post, he must not	See that the corner-kick one yard area is marked.	Opponents should remember that they must not stand within 6 yards of the ball. To do so is the cause of constant annoyance and is not playing the game fairly.

Goal-keeper Handling.	LAW 8. The goal-keeper may within his own penalty area, use his hands, but shall not carry the ball.	CARRYING by the goal-keeper is taking more than two steps while holding the ball, or bouncing it on the hand.
Charging Goal-keeper.	The goal-keeper shall not be charged except when he is holding the ball or obstructing an opponent, or when he has passed outside the goal area.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
ay it again until it has been played another player. Do not allow a goal- kick or corner-kick to be taken while y opponent is within 6 yards of the ll.
The goal-keeper must not "walk out" bouncing the ball on the ground. After the second step he must be penalised. The goal-keeper must not handle the ball outside his own penalty area. For "carrying" the ball the penalty is a free kick and not a penalty kick.
If the goal-keeper obstructs an opponent he may be charged even when in his goal area. See that the goal-keeper is not unfairly charged,		The goal-keeper should bear in mind that directly he leaves his goal area he is liable to be charged by an opponent.

	LAW 8 (continued) .
Goal-keeper may be Changed.	The goal-keeper may be changed during the game, but notice of such change must first be given to the Referee.	If a goal-keeper has been changed without the Referee being notified, and the new goal-keeper handles the ball within the penalty area, a penalty kick must be awarded. See Law 17. (International Board, June 17th, 1901.)
Tripping, Kicking, Jumping at.	LAW 9. Neither tripping, kicking, nor jumping at a player shall be allowed.	TRIPPING is intentionally throwing, or attempting to throw, an opponent by the use of the legs, or by stooping in front of or behind him.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
as he has so little chance of protecting himself when his attention is engaged with a coming shot. Special notice should be taken of the fact that a goal-keeper may be charged when he is outside the goal area.		So long as a goal-keeper does not stick to the ball, or obstruct an opponent, he is protected under the Laws when within his goal area. Get rid of the ball at once is naturally the best advice that can be given him.
Note who commences a game as goal-keeper, and allow no one else to act as goal-keeper, or to claim his privileges, until you have been notified of the change of goal-keeper.		If the goal-keeper who commences the game in that position should be changed during the game the Referee should at once be notified of the fact, and also of any subsequent changes.
This is an important Law, as by enforcing it and taking the initiative where he sees necessary, a Referee can prevent rough play developing. He can stop the game at any time and give a free kick, or caution, or both, against any player whose conduct or play is dangerous or likely to cause injury. The free kick must be taken	Bring before the notice of your committee any conduct on the part of a member of your club which is likely to bring the game into disrepute. Use all means in your power to stop the practice of players using bad language, or addressing observations to, or at, the Referee on or off the field.
Note the important fact that it is the intentional breach of Law which must be punished. This must be done promptly and strictly.		Let the Referee give "hands" on his own initiative.

Holding, Pushing.	LAW 9 (continued.) A player shall not use his hands to hold or push an opponent.	HOLDING includes the obstruction of a player by the hand or any part of the arm extended from the body.
Charging.	Charging is permissible, but it must not be violent or dangerous.
Charging Behind.	A player shall not be charged from behind unless he is intentionally obstructing an opponent.	The offence of charging an opponent from behind is not committed where a player in playing the ball touches a player behind unless there is an intention to charge such player. The Referee is the sole judge of such intention, but it has been noticed that many Referees construe the Law more strictly than is necessary to secure fair play, and in consequence of such decisions the progress of games is unnecessarily interfered with. If a player turns so as to face his own goal when he is tackled, or is obviously aware that he is about to be tackled by an opponent, he is intentionally obstructing, and may be charged.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
Under no circumstances whatever must a player push an opponent with his hands or arms. Using the knee against an opponent is a most dangerous practice and should be severely punished.		Under no circumstances whatever must you push an opponent with your hands or arms, or use the elbow or knee against him.
Charging must not be penalised unless it is violent or dangerous.		Let charging be of the good honest type and not degenerate into rough play.
A player may be charged from behind when he is intentionally obstructing an opponent, whether he is facing his own goal or not; but the charging must under no circumstances be violent or dangerous.		Even if your opponent is intentionally obstructing you, you have no right to charge him in a manner likely to do him injury. If players would hustle more and charge less the games would not be so rough and accidents not so frequent.

		from behind. (International Board, June 8th, 1907.) Referees will be supported in putting down rough play.
Free Kick.	LAW 10. When a free kick has been awarded, the kicker's opponents shall not approach within ten yards of the ball, until the kick is taken, unless they are standing on their own goal line. The ball must at least be rolled over before it shall be considered played, i.e., it must make a complete circuit or travel the distance of its circumference. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been played by another player. The kick-off (except as provided by Law 2), corner-kick, and goal-kick shall be free kicks within the meaning of this Law.
Free-Kick from which Goal may be Scored.	LAW 11. A goal may be scored from a free-kick which is awarded because of any infringement of Law 9, but not from any other free-kick.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
It is the Referee's duty to see that all free kicks are taken from the proper place and not allow a free kick to be taken until he has given a signal. The usual signal is a whistle. The free kick must be taken without delay. Nothing slows a game more than wasting time in taking a free kick. It is also unfair to delay bearing in mind that a free kick awarded for breaches of Law 9 may score a goal direct. If opponents persist in encroaching act promptly and caution them. The kick must not be allowed if the ball is on the move while it is being taken.		Players must wait for the signal from the Referee before taking the kick-off or free kick. Opponents must not approach within ten yards of the ball till it is kicked. Players neglecting this instruction are liable to be ordered off the field.
Special notice should be taken of the fact that a goal may be scored direct, whether the ball touches a player of either side or not, if the free kick is awarded for tripping, kicking, jumping at, holding, shoving, violently or dangerously		Players should remember that a Goal may be scored from a free kick imposed for infringements of Law 9.

It doubtful about it ask the Referee before the match, or during the interval, and he is bound to examine the boots. Players sometimes forget that studs wear away exposing the nails, which would make them illegal.

Instructions to Referees.

The duty of a Referee to order a player off for violent conduct, or after a caution for ungentlemanly behaviour, is emphasised by the alteration made in the Law by the International Board in 1909.

The Referee decides everything, the Linesmen being his assistants, whose decisions he can overrule. He must keep the score and also the time, and allow for time wasted, and stop the game as he thinks fit, though in the case of the game abruptly terminating, he is bound to report the fact to the local or National Association within three days.

As regards rough play, the Referee has absolute discretion. Where he considers the conduct of a player dangerous, or likely to cause injury, he must award a free kick. In doing so he must caution the offender, and, if the offence is repeated, order the player off the field of play. In the case of violent conduct, a previous caution is not needed. The Referee

Instructions to Secretaries.

If you find the spectators on your ground beginning to annoy the Referee take care that you arrange for his protection both during and after the match. Club committees should refuse admission to notoriously bad characters. See that you have bills posted in your grounds respecting misconduct towards the Referee.

Clubs are required to prevent betting.

A club's duty to protect the officials does not cease on the latter leaving the ground.

Instructions to Players.

It is impossible for a Referee to please everybody. Remember his difficult position and do not make it more so.

If any disturbance arises go at once to the help of the Referee.

Betting is prohibited.

NOTE:—The Players marked ⊕ are attacking the goal, and those marked ○ are defending.

No. 1. OFF-SIDE.

CLEAR PASS TO ONE OF SAME SIDE.

A has run the ball up, and having D in front passes to B. B is off-side because there are not three opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball is passed by A.

If B waits for E to fall back before he shoots, this will not put him in play, because it does not alter his position with relation to A at the moment the ball was passed by A.

No. 2. NOT OFF-SIDE.

CLEAR PASS TO ONE OF SAME SIDE (continued).

A has run the ball up, and having D in front passes across the field. B runs from position 1 to position 2. B is not off-side because at the moment the ball was passed by A he was behind the ball, and had three opponents between him and the goal line.

No. 3. OFF-SIDE.

CLEAR PASS TO ONE OF SAME SIDE (continued).

A and B make a passing run up the wing. A passes the ball to B who cannot shoot because he has D in front. A then runs from position 1 to position 2 where he receives the ball from B. A is off-side because he has not three opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball is played forward by B.

No. 4. NOT OFF-SIDE.

CLEAR PASS TO ONE OF SAME SIDE (continued).

A and B make a passing run up the centre and A being confronted by D passes back to B. B is not off-side, because although he has not three opponents between him and the goal-line he is not nearer the goal-line than A at the moment A passes the ball to him.

No. 5. OFF-SIDE.

RUNNING BACK FOR BALL.

A centres the ball. B runs back from position 1 to position 2, and then dribbles between D and E and scores. B is off-side because he has not three opponents between him and the goal-line at the moment the ball was played by A.

No. 6. OFF-SIDE.

RUNNING BACK FOR BALL (continued).

A makes a high shot at goal, and the wind and screw carry the ball back. B runs from position 1 to position 2 and scores. B is off-side because he has not three opponents between him and the goal-line at the moment the ball was last played by A.

No. 7. OFF-SIDE.

SHOT AT GOAL RETURNED BY GOAL-KEEPER.

A shoots at goal. The ball is played out by C and B obtains possession, but slips and passes the ball to F who scores. F is off-side because he is in front of B, and when the ball was passed by B he had not three opponents between him and the goal-line.

No 8. NOT OFF-SIDE.

SHOT AT GOAL RETURNED BY GOAL-KEEPER (continued).

A shoots at goal. The ball is played out by C but B obtains possession and scores. B has not three opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball is played by A, but he is not off-side because the ball has been last played by an opponent C.

NO. 9. OFF-SIDE.

BALL REBOUNDING FROM GOAL POSTS OR GOAL BAR.

A shoots for goal and the ball rebounds from the goal-post into play. B secures the ball and scores. B is off-side because the ball is last played by A, a player of his own side, and when A played it B had not three opponents between him and the goal-line, and was in front of A.

NO. 10. OFF-SIDE.

BALL REBOUNDING FROM GOAL POSTS OR GOAL BAR (continued).

A shoots for goal and the ball rebounds from the cross-bar into play. A follows up from position 1 to position 2, and then passes to B who has run up on the other side. B is off-side because the ball is last played by A, a player of his own side, and when A played it B had not three opponents between him and the goal-line, and was in front of A. If A had scored himself at the second attempt, instead of passing to B, it would have been a goal.

No. II. OFF-SIDE.

BALL TOUCHING AN OPPONENT.

A shoots at goal and the ball is partially played by D . A runs from position 1 to position 2 and recovers the ball, but cannot shoot owing to D being in front. A therefore passes to B. B is off-side because he is in front of A and has not three opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball is passed by A.

No. 12. NOT OFF-SIDE.

BALL TOUCHING AN OPPONENT (continued).

A shoots at goal. D runs from position 1 to position 2 to intercept the ball, but it glances off his foot to B who scores. B is not off-side because, although he has not three opponents between him and the goal-line, the ball was last played by an opponent D.

No 13. OFF-SIDE.

OBSTRUCTING THE GOAL-KEEPER.

A shoots for goal and scores. B however obstructs C so that he cannot get at the ball. The goal must be disallowed, because B is in an off-side position and may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent.

No. 14. OFF-SIDE.

OBSTRUCTING THE GOAL-KEEPER (continued).

A shoots for goal. B runs in while the ball is in transit and prevents C playing it properly. B is off-side because he is in front of A and has not three opponents between him and the goal line when A plays the ball. When in this position B may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent.

No. 15. OFF-SIDE.

OBSTRUCTING AN OPPONENT OTHER THAN THE GOAL-KEEPER.

A shoots for goal. B prevents E running in to intercept the ball. B is off-side because he is in front of A and has not three opponents between him and the goal-line when A plays the ball. When in this position B may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent.

No. 16. OFF-SIDE.

AFTER A CORNER KICK.

A takes a corner kick and the ball goes to B. B shoots for goal and as the ball is passing through F touches it. F is off-side because after the corner kick has been taken the ball is last played by B, a player of his own side, and when B played it F had not three opponents between him and the goal-line.

No. 17. NOT OFF-SIDE.

AFTER A CORNER KICK (continued).

A takes a corner-kick and the ball goes to B who puts it through goal. B has only one opponent between him and the goal-line, but he is not off-side because a player is not out of play in the case of a corner-kick.

No. 18. NOT OFF-SIDE.

AFTER A CORNER KICK (continued).

A takes a corner-kick and the ball glances off D and goes to B, who puts it through goal. B has only one opponent between him and the goal-line, but he is not off-side because the ball was last played by an opponent D.

No. 19. OFF-SIDE.

AFTER A THROW-IN FROM THE TOUCH-LINE.

A throws to B and then runs from position 1 to position 2. B passes the ball to A in position 2. A is off-side because he has not three opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball is passed forward to him by B.

No. 20. NOT OFF-SIDE.

AFTER A THROW-IN FROM THE TOUCH-LINE (continued).

A throws the ball against D and it then goes on to B. Although B has not three opponents between him and the goal-line, he is not off-side because the ball was last played by an opponent D.

No. 21. OFF-SIDE.

A PLAYER CANNOT PUT HIMSELF ON-SIDE BY RUNNING BACK IN HIS OWN HALF OF THE FIELD OF PLAY.

If A is in his opponents' half of the field of play, and is off-side in position when B last played the ball, he cannot put himself on-side by moving back into his own half of the field of play.

No. 22. NOT OFF-SIDE.

A PLAYER WITHIN HIS OWN HALF OF THE FIELD OF PLAY NOT OFF-SIDE WHEN HE ENTERS HIS OPPONENT'S HALF OF THE FIELD OF PLAY.

If A is in his own half of the field of play he is on-side, although there were not three opponents nearer their own goal-line when B last played the ball. A is on-side when he enters his opponents' half of the field of play.
