INSTRUCTIONS ON THE

Number of Players.	LAW 1. The game shall be played by not more than eleven players on each side. By arrangement made before the commencement of a match (but not in a match played under the Rules of a Competition) substitutes may be allowed in place of injured players.	An International match is deemed to be a match played under the Rules of a Competition. (International Board, June 11th, 1927).
Dimensions of Field of Play.	The field of play shall be as shown in the plan at the end of these Laws, subject to the following provisions: The dimensions of the field of play shall be—maximum length, 130 yards; minimum length, 100 yards; maximum breadth, 100 yards; minimum breadth, 50 yards.
Marking out ground.	The field of play shall be marked by boundary lines. The lines at each end are the goal-lines, and the lines at the sides are the touch-lines. The touch-lines shall be drawn at right angles with the goal-lines. A flag with a staff not less than 5 ft. high shall be placed at each corner. A half-way line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a	Flag-staffs with pointed tops must not be used. The touch and goal-lines must not be marked by a V-shaped rut. ## LAWS OF THE GAME.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
Six-a-side and similar irregular competitions where gate money is taken are forbidden unless the consent of the County Association has been obtained.	Secretaries are responsible for ascertaining that all competitions in which their clubs compete are properly sanctioned. Matches are forbidden on Sundays in the United Kingdom.	Except through accident, a player must not leave the field during the progress of the game without the permission of the Referee. Taking any part in Sunday football in the United Kingdom is prohibited.
Refuse to sanction play if danger is likely to accrue to players from the state of the ground. As to the weather, use your own judgment, but do not needlessly spoil sport.	The size 115 yards by 75 yards is the most general, but attention should be paid to the requirements of the Rules of Competitions in which clubs take part.
Short flag-staffs are dangerous, hence the minimum height of 5 feet. The Referee must not allow a corner flag-staff to be removed even for the convenience of the player taking a corner-kick.	The goal-line must be marked out from corner to corner, including the goal. A half-way line is necessary on all grounds. See that the one yard area within which the corner kick must be taken is marked out.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
	LAW 1. (continued). suitable mark, and a circle with a 10 yards' radius shall be made round it.
The Goals.	The goals shall be upright posts fixed on the goal-lines, equi-distant from the corner flag staffs, 8 yards apart, with a bar across them 8 feet from the ground. The maximum width of the goal-posts and the maximum depth of the cross-bar shall be 5 inches.
The Goal Area.	Lines shall be marked 6 yards from each goal-post at right angles to the goal-lines for a distance of 6 yards, and these shall be connected with each other by a line parallel to the goal-lines; the space within these lines shall be the goal area.
The Penalty Area.	Lines shall be marked 18 yards from each goal-post at right angles to the goal-lines for a distance of 18 yards, and these shall be connected with each other

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
The Referee must caution any player wilfully displacing flags or goal-posts, or pulling down the bar, and if repeated he should order the offender off the field of play.	The surface of the bars or posts facing the field of play must not be more than five inches in width. Tape or any substance not of a rigid nature must not be used in the place of a bar. Goal nets are strongly recommended. Have the goal-posts and bars painted white so as to be distinctly seen. Provide light coloured corner flags. See that the goal nets are properly pegged down and in order before every match, and that there are no holes or possible openings for the escape of the ball.	Goal-keepers to save a shot or to get hold of the ball sometimes seize the bar and pull it down. Any player wilfully displacing a flag or goal-post, or bar, is guilty of misconduct.
If these, or other lines, required by Law 1, are not properly marked, require this to be done before a match,	The home club is responsible for the proper marking out of the ground.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
	LAW 1 (continued). by a line parallel to the goal-lines; the space within these lines shall be the penalty area. A suitable mark shall be made opposite the centre of each goal, 12 yards from the goal-line; this shall be the penalty kick mark.
The Ball.	The circumference of the ball shall not be less than 27 inches, nor more than 28 inches. The outer casing of the ball must be of leather, and no material shall be used in the construction of the ball which would constitute a danger to the players.
Dimensions of Field of Play and Weight of Ball in International Matches.	In International matches, the dimensions of the field of play shall be—maximum length, 120 yards; minimum length, 110 yards; maximum breadth, 80 yards; minimum breadth, 70 yards; and at the commencement of the game the weight of the ball shall be from 13 to 15 ounces.
Duration of Game.	LAW 2. The duration of the game shall be 90 minutes, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
if time permits. It is advisable to visit the ground in good time and see that everything is in order.
	The ball should be supplied by the home club. See that the ball is fully inflated, and that there are reserve balls close at hand.
Refers to International Contests only.
Unless a Referee is notified to the contrary by the two captains he must under ordinary circumstances continue the game for 90 minutes. He has no power to set aside the Rules of Cup and other Competitions where time to be played is specified.		If you wish to play short time the Referee must be notified. This may only be done by the mutual agreement of both captains, where the Rules of a Competition do not require a specified playing period.

Choice of Goals.	LAW 2 (continued). The winners of the toss shall have the option of kick-off or choice of goals.
The Kick-Off.	The game shall be commenced by a place-kick from the centre of the field of play in the direction of the opponents' goal-line; the opponents shall not approach within 10 yards of the ball until it is kicked off, nor shall any player on either side pass the centre of the ground in the direction of his opponents' goal until the ball is kicked off.	A PLACE-KICK is a kick at the ball while it is on the ground in the centre of the field of play. If this Law is not complied with the kick-off must be taken over again. (International Board, June 15th, 1903.) The practice of kicking-off by persons other than the players competing in a match is prohibited, except in Charity matches. (Decision of Council, March 25th, 1907.)

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
Note which side kicked off. (See Instructions to Referees on Law 13.) Referees should notice that a free kick must not be awarded for any breach of this Law. It is their duty to see the kick-off properly taken in the direction of the opposite goal; also that back kicking and encroaching must not be allowed. Any player wilfully encroaching should first be cautioned, and, on a repetition, be ordered off the field of play. After the ball has been properly kicked off, the second and other players may play it in any direction. If in the opinion of the Referee the ball has not rolled completely over, or travelled the distance of its circumference, i.e., about 27 inches, he must order it back again to be kicked off properly. The Referee must not allow anyone to kick-off unless he is a player competing in the match. This order does apply to Charity matches.	The practice of getting an outside person to kick-off in a match is forbidden, except in Charity matches.	Many players, when the whistle sounds for the start, run inside the opponents' 10 yards' circle or cross the half-way line. This is wrong, as the game commences with the kick-off, not with the Referee's signal.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
Ends to be changed at Half Time. Half Interval. Re-starting game.	LAW 3. Ends shall only be changed at half-time. The interval at half-time shall not exceed five minutes, except by consent of the Referee. After a goal is scored the losing side shall kick off, but after the change of ends at half-time the ball shall be kicked off by the opposite side from that which originally did so; and always as provided in Law 2.	Players have a right to an interval of 5 minutes at half-time. (Decision of Council, January 15th, 1906.) Referees must observe the Regulation that the half-time interval must not be allowed to exceed 5 minutes, except with their consent, which is only to be given in exceptional circumstances. (Council, December 8th, 1919.)
How a Goal Scored.	LAW 4. Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal shall be scored when the ball has passed between the goal-posts under the bar, not being thrown, knocked on, nor carried by any player of the attacking side.	The whole of the ball must have passed over the goal-line, or touch-line, before it is out of play. (International Board.) KNOCKING ON and carrying are both forms of handling the ball.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
The Referee is distinctly authorised to prevent deliberate waste of time. (See Law 13.) He should use every endeavour to limit the half-time interval to 5 minutes, and only consent to its extension in exceptional circumstances.		In competitions where after a drawn game an extra half-hour is necessary, the Captains must toss again for choice of ends, and play must be a quarter of an hour each way.
The words "not being thrown" cover a throw-in from touch, so that if a player throws the ball in from touch through the opponents' goal it would be a goal-kick for the defending side and not a goal. It is possible for the ball to roll all along the goal-line, and for the greater part of it to be over the line, and yet not pass through the goal. The goal-keeper may be behind the goal-line and yet prevent a goal. A Referee must under no circumstances allow a goal unless he is absolutely satisfied that the whole of the ball has passed out of play. On catching the ball or fisting out, a	The necessity for the goal-line between the posts being clearly marked is emphasised by the requirements of this Law.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
How result of game is decided.	A game shall be won by the team scoring the greater number of goals. If no goals have been scored, or the scores are equal at the end of the game, the game shall be drawn.
If bar displaced.	If from any cause during the progress of the game the bar is displaced, the Referee shall have power to award a goal if in his opinion the ball would have passed under the bar if it had not been displaced.
If Ball rebounds from goal-posts, &c.	The ball is in play if it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar, or a corner flag staff into the field of play. The ball is in play if it touches the Referee or a Linesman when in the field of play.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
goal-keeper sometimes allows the ball to pass into goal in mid air, and the Referee may consider that the whole of the ball crosses the line. If so, and he is in a good position to judge, he must give a goal. It is difficult to judge unless one is close up, hence it is necessary for the Referee to follow the ball closely up and down the ground and try to get a side view whenever he thinks a shot is about to be put in, or there is a scrimmage in front of the goal.
	It is important that Secretaries should see that the bars are securely fixed to the posts.	A Goal-keeper must not pull down the bar.
The ball touching the Referee or a Linesman when he is in the field of play is still in play, though it might otherwise have gone into touch or the goal-line.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
Ball crossing lines, out of Play.	The ball is out of play when it has crossed the goal-line or touch-line, either on the ground or in the air.
The throw-in.	LAW 5. When the ball is in touch, a player of the opposite side to that which played it out shall throw it in from the point on the touch-line where it left the field of play. The player throwing the ball must stand with both feet on the ground outside the touchline, facing the field of play, and shall throw the ball in over his head with both hands in any direction, and it shall be in play when thrown in. A goal shall not be scored from a throw-in, and the thrower shall not again play until the ball has been played by another player.	TOUCH is that part of the ground on either side of the field of play.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
Linesmen should follow the game close to the touch-line and keep out of the field of play as much as possible.
The ball going into touch in mid air and afterwards alighting in the field of play is out of play.		The ball may roll along the touch-line or goal-line and still be in play. The whole of the ball must have passed over and be clear of the touch-line or goal-line before it is out of play.
The Linesman should point with his flag to the place where the ball went into touch and stand a little behind the thrower to watch the throw-in. If the player does not throw the ball in properly, the Referee must give a free kick. An improper throw would be one delivered over the shoulder, or with one hand giving the impetus and the other merely guiding the ball, or if the thrower had not some part of both feet on the ground outside the touch-line at the moment of throwing, or if he merely dropped the ball and did not throw it. A player throwing-in the ball must face the field of play.		The practice of claiming for the throw-in when the ball goes into touch is far too prevalent and is unnecessary. LET THE LINESMAN GIVE HIS DECISION. All the claiming in the world will not alter it, unless the Referee shall see fit to interfere.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
Off-side. See Diagrams Pages 33 to 53.	LAW 6. When a player plays the ball, any player of the same side who at such moment of playing is nearer to his opponents' goal-line is out of play, and may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent, or with the play, until the ball has been again played, unless there are at such moment of playing at least two of his opponents nearer their own goal-line. A player is not out of play when the ball is kicked off from goal, when a corner-kick or a throw-in is taken, when the ball has been last played by an opponent, or when he himself is within his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is played by any player of the same side.	It is not a breach of the Law for a player to be in an off-side position, but only when in that position he interferes with an opponent, or with the play. If a player who is in an off-side position advances towards an opponent, or the ball, and in so doing causes the play to be affected, he should be penalised. (International Board, 14th June, 1924.) If a player deliberately trips an opponent who is standing in an off-side position within the penalty area, and who does not attempt to play the ball or obstruct, a penalty kick should be awarded. A flag may be placed opposite the half-way line on each side of the field of play, but it must be at least one yard from the touch-line, and on a staff not less than 5 feet high. (International Board.)

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
A player who is in his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is last played cannot be off-side. The point to notice is not where a player is when he plays the ball, but where he WAS at the moment it was played by a player of the same side. In the rush of a game a Referee is apt to lose sight of the positions of the field at every kick, yet he ought to fix each change on his mind. If a player is behind the ball when it is played he cannot possibly be off-side, but if he is in front of it he is liable to be so. Though a player cannot be off-side when an opponent last plays the ball, or when a corner-kick, a throw-in from touch, or a goal-kick, is taken, this protection ceases the moment a second player plays the ball, so that a player not off-side in position when such kick or throw-in is taken, may, without having moved, be offside as soon as the ball has been next played by one of his own side. A player showing up another of his own side		A player who is in his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is last played cannot be off-side. A player once off-side cannot put himself on-side. This can only be done for him in three ways:—(i.) If an opponent next plays the ball; (ii.) If he is behind the ball when it is next played by one of his own side; (iii.) If he has TWO opponents between him and their goal line when the ball is played by one of his own side further from his opponents' goal than himself. The ball hitting the goal-post or bar and rebounding does not put a player on-side who was off-side when the ball was last played. Take care that when the ball is played by one of your own side except when he is taking a goal kick, a corner kick, or a throw-in you have 2 opponents between you and their goal-line or that you are behind the ball. Can anything be more simple? If your opponent plays the ball, or the ball touches

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
who has the ball cannot be off-side. Players may be off-side when a free kick or penalty kick is taken. An opponent playing the ball puts a player on-side at once. While in an off-side position a player must not interfere in any way with an opponent or with the play. If a player is in an off-side position but is not interfering with the play, he must not be penalised. The International Board have made it plain that a player, who is in an off-side position, is bound to keep out of the way of the play, and that he is liable to be penalised if in any manner his presence causes any interference with the play. When the ball is kicked off from either goal no player is off-side. The provision of flags opposite the half-way line is optional. The object is to assist the Referee and Linesmen to determine the position of the half-way line when they are at a distance or when the line has become indistinct.		him in any way, you are on-side no matter where you stand, but when standing in an off-side position you have no right to interfere with an opponent nor to station yourself so near the goal-keeper, or any other opponent, as to hamper his movements, or obstruct his sight of the ball. When a player finds he is in an off-side position it is his duty to keep clear of the play and neither interfere with nor inconvenience an opponent, nor make a pretence of doing so.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
Goal-Kick. Corner-Kick.	LAW 7. When the ball is played behind the goal-line by a player of the opposite side, it shall be kicked off by any one of the players behind whose goal-line it went, within that half of the goal area nearest the point where the ball left the field of play; but, if played behind by any one of the side whose goal-line it is, a player of the opposite side shall kick it from within one yard of the nearest corner flag-staff, and the kicker shall not again play the ball until it has been played by another player. In either case an opponent shall not be allowed within ten yards of the ball until it is kicked off.	The corner flag-staff must not be removed when a corner-kick is taken. (International Board.)
Goal-keeper Handling.	LAW 8. The goal-keeper may within his own penalty area use his hands, but shall not carry the ball.	CARRYING by the goal-keeper is taking more than two steps while holding the ball, or bouncing it on the hand. The attention of Referees is called to the action of some goal-keepers in not observing the provisions of Law 8, and to the necessity of Referees seeing that such provisions are observed. (Council, March, 1920.)

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
It is the duty of the Referee to see that goal-kicks are properly taken within that half of the goal area nearest the point where the ball went out. It is the duty of the Referee to see that corner-kicks are properly taken, and on the side on which the ball goes out. If the player takes a corner-kick, and the ball rebounds to him after striking the goal-post, he must not play it again until it has been played by another player. Do not allow a goal-kick or corner-kick to be taken while any opponent is within ten yards of the ball.	See that the corner-kick one yard area is marked.	A goal-kick may be taken in any direction the kicker chooses. Opponents should remember that they must not stand within ten yards of the ball. To do so is the cause of constant annoyance and is not playing the game fairly. A goal may be scored direct from a corner kick.
The goal-keeper must not "walk about" bouncing the ball on the hand. After the second step he must be penalised. If the goal-keeper handles the ball outside his own penalty area, he is committing a breach of Law 9. For "carrying" the ball the	Goal-keepers are required to wear colours distinguishing them from the other players and the spectators.

Referees and Players are required to comply with the regulation as to goal-keepers wearing distinctive colours. (Council, December, 1919.)

Charging
Goal-keeper.

The goal-keeper shall not be charged except when he is holding the ball or obstructing an opponent, or when he has passed outside the goal area.

Goal-keeper
may be Changed.

The goal-keeper may be changed during the game, but notice of such change must first be given to the Referee.

If a goal-keeper has been changed without the Referee being notified, and the new goal-keeper handles the ball within the penalty area, a penalty kick must be awarded. See Law 17. (International Board, June 17th, 1901.)

Tripping,
Kicking,
Jumping at.

LAW 9.

Neither tripping, kicking, striking nor jumping at a player shall be allowed.

TRIPPING is intentionally throwing, or attempting to throw, an opponent by the use of the legs, or by stooping in front of or behind him.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
penalty is a free kick and not a penalty kick.
If the goal-keeper obstructs an opponent he may be charged even when in his goal area. See that the goal-keeper is not unfairly charged, as he has so little chance of protecting himself when his attention is engaged with a coming shot. Special notice should be taken of the fact that a goal-keeper may be charged when he is outside the goal area.		The goal-keeper should bear in mind that directly he leaves his goal area he is liable to be charged by an opponent. So long as a goal-keeper does not hold the ball, or obstruct an opponent, he is protected under the Laws when within his goal area. Get rid of the ball at once is naturally the best advice that can be given him.
Note who commences a game as goal-keeper, and allow no one else to act as goal-keeper, or to claim his privileges, until you have been notified of the change of goal-keeper.		If the goal-keeper is changed during the game the Referee must at once be notified.
This is an important Law, as by enforcing it and taking the initiative where he sees necessary, a Referee can prevent rough play developing. He can stop the game at any time and	Bring before the notice of your Committee any conduct on the part of a member of your club which is likely to bring the game into disrepute. If persisted in a club ought	The offence is aggravated if a player has previously been cautioned. A player ordered off for foul play is liable to suspension.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
	LAW 9 (continued).	The Laws should be more vigorously enforced by Referees in order to prevent improper conduct, and players who are guilty of it escaping punishment.
"Hands."	A player (the goal-keeper, within his own penalty area, excepted) shall not intentionally handle the ball.	HANDLING is intentionally playing the ball with the hand or arm. KNOCKING ON is when a player strikes or propels the ball with his hands or arms. Cases of handling the ball and tripping, pushing, kicking, or holding an opponent, and charging an opponent from behind, may so happen as to be considered unintentional, and when this is so, no offence is committed. (International Board, 8th June, 1912.) Referees are required to make a distinction between intentional and unintentional handling, as there is no offence unless the handling is intentional. Stoppages of play for trivial reasons should be avoided, as they cause unnecessary delays and create friction. (Council, 1910.)

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
give a free kick, or caution, or both, against any player whose conduct or play is dangerous or likely to cause injury, or he may order him off. The free kick must be taken from the place where the infringement occurred. Jumping at an opponent must of necessity be intentional, and this differs from jumping to play the ball.	not to allow any such offender to continue to belong to it, for not only may such conduct bring punishment on the player but it gives the club a bad name and may lead to a more serious trouble. Use all means in your power to stop the practice of players using bad language, or addressing observations to, or at, the Referee on or off the field.	A player who retaliates when fouled is equally liable to punishment.
Note the important fact that it is the intentional breach of Law which must be punished. This must be done promptly and strictly. It may be the line of least resistance to penalise a player whenever the ball touches his arm, but it is not justice to do so unless it is an INTENTIONAL act.		Let the Referee give "hands" on his own initiative.

Index.	Text of the Laws.	Official Decisions.
Holding, Pushing.	LAW 9 (continued). A player shall not use his hands to hold or push an opponent.	HOLDING includes the obstruction of a player by the hand or any part of the arm extended from the body.
Charging.	Charging is permissible, but it must not be violent nor dangerous.	Referees must allow a fair charge. Jumping at an opponent, which in all cases is illegal, should not be confused with charging. (Council, December, 1910.)
Charging Behind.	A player shall not be charged from behind unless he is intentionally obstructing an opponent.	The offence of charging an opponent from behind is not committed where a player in playing the ball touches a player behind unless there is an intention to charge such player. The Referee is the sole judge of such intention, but it has been noticed that many Referees construe the Law more strictly than is necessary to secure fair play, and in consequence of such decisions the progress of games is unnecessarily interfered with. If a player turns so as to face his own goal when he is tackled, or is obviously aware that he is about to be tackled by an opponent, he is intentionally obstructing, and may be charged.

Instructions to Referees.	Instructions to Secretaries.	Instructions to Players.
Under no circumstances whatever must a player push an opponent with his hands or arms. Using the knee against an opponent is a most dangerous practice and should be severely punished.		Under no circumstances whatever must you push an opponent with your hands or arms, or use the elbow or knee against him.
Charging must not be penalised unless it is violent or dangerous. This is a law that Referees construe too strictly, whereas they are expressly required not to do so.		Let charging be of the good honest type.
A player may be charged from behind when he is intentionally obstructing an opponent, whether he is facing his own goal or not; but the charging must under no circumstances be violent or dangerous.		Even if your opponent is intentionally obstructing you, you have no right to charge him in a manner likely to do him injury.

It is the Referee's duty to see that all free kicks are taken from the proper place and not allow a free kick to be taken until he has given a signal. The usual signal is a whistle. The free kick must be taken without delay. Nothing slows a game more than wasting time in taking a free kick. ## Duties and Powers of Referee.

A Referee shall be appointed, whose duties shall be to enforce the Laws and decide all disputed points; and his decision on points of fact connected with the play shall be final, so far as the result of the game is concerned. He shall also keep a record of the game, and act as timekeeper. In the event of any ungentlemanly behaviour on the part of any of the players, the offender or offenders shall be cautioned, and if any further offence is committed, or in case of violent conduct without any previous caution, the Referee shall order the offending player or players off the field of play, and shall transmit the name or names of such player or players to his

In International Matches the Referees shall be neutral, and the Linesmen shall be Officials registered as Referees, with a National Association. (International Board, June 14th, 1930.)

Any player leaving the field during the progress of a game (except through accident) without the consent of the Referee will be deemed guilty of misconduct, and will render himself liable to be penalised.

(e) Studs on soles or heels of his boots, not round in plan, less than  $\frac{1}{2}$ -in. in diameter, more than  $\frac{1}{2}$ -in. deep, and conical or pointed.

During the progress of a game the Referee must enforce this Law without waiting for an appeal. There is no necessity to report this offence.

The Law includes metal clips or buckles, etc., that are dangerous, either on the boots or shin guards.

The duty of a Referee to order a player off for violent conduct, or after a caution for ungentlemanly behaviour, is emphasised by the International Board.

The Referee must keep the score and also the time, and allow for time wasted, and stop the game as he thinks fit, though in the case of the game abruptly terminating, he is bound to report the fact to the National or County Association in two days.

Instructions to Secretaries.

If you find the spectators on your ground beginning to annoy the Referee take care that you arrange for his protection both during and after the match. ## Instructions to Referees.

Referees must report cases of misconduct, when the Club is in membership with The Football Association, giving full details direct to that Association. Where the Clubs are members only of County Associations the report should be sent to the latter.

As regards rough play, the Referee has absolute discretion. Where he considers the conduct of a player dangerous, or likely to cause injury, he must award a free kick. In doing so he must caution the offender, and, if the offence is repeated, order the player off the field of play. The caution must be specific and personal. In the case of violent conduct, a previous caution is not needed. The Referee must not accept an apology.

Avoid (a).—Discussing or arguing points with players or officials on the field of play.

Check rough play at the outset.

The Referee is recommended to compare watches with the Linesmen, prior to the game and at half-time.

The Referee should be very careful in deducting time for stoppages, &c. He should blow his whistle for time or half-time at the exact moment, whether the ball is in play or not. The only case in which time can be extended is that of a penalty kick.

Referees are strongly recommended not to trust to memory alone to keep a record of the game, but to note on paper the time of start and the time at which they would in the ordinary course call half-time or time. They may then easily add to it for wilful delays, or stoppages of the game. The goals scored by each side in the order of occurrence should also be noted.

Clubs are expected to provide a private way for players and officials from playing ground to dressing-room wherever this is practicable.

A player guilty of using foul or abusive language to the Referee, shall be liable to be treated as guilty of violent conduct.

Referees are also required to deal more effectively with cases of misconduct on the part of players, officials, and spectators. (Council, December 14th, 1903.)

All reports of misconduct by Service Players must be made direct to The Football Association, 22, Lancaster Gate, London, W.2, except in matches confined to Service Teams, when the report shall be sent direct to the Service Association concerned.

Without permission of the Referee, no person shall be allowed on the field of play during a match other than the Linesmen and players.

It is misconduct for any Association or Club, or any player, official, or member of any Association or Club to offer, or attempt to offer, either directly or indirectly, any consideration whatever to another Club, player, or players of any other Club, with a view to influence the result of a match. It is misconduct for any Club, player, or players, to accept any such consideration.

It is the duty of the Referees to act upon the information of neutral Linesmen with regard to incidents that do not come under the personal notice of Referees. (Council, March, 1920.)

If in the opinion of the Referee a player has been seriously injured the game shall be stopped, the player at once removed from the field of play, and the game resumed. A has run the ball up, and having  $\text{E}$  in front passes across the field. B runs from position 1 to position 2. B is not off-side because at the moment the ball was passed by A he was behind the ball, and had two opponents between him and the goal-line.

No. 3. OFF-SIDE.

A shoots for goal and the ball rebounds from the goal-post into play. B secures the ball and scores. B is off-side because the ball is last played by A, a player of his own side, and when A played it B had not two opponents between him and the goal-line, and was in front of A.

A shoots for goal and the ball rebounds from the cross-bar into play. A follows up from position 1 to position 2, and then passes to B who has run up on the other side. B is off-side because the ball is last played by A, a player of his own side, and when A played it B had not two opponents between him and the goal-line, and was in front of A. If A had scored himself at the second attempt, instead of passing to B, it would have been a goal.

No. II. OFF-SIDE.
