Number of Players.	LAW I. The game shall be played by not more than eleven players on each side. By arrangement made before the commencement of a match (but not in a match played under the Rules of a Competition) substitutes may be allowed in place of injured players.		An International match is deemed to be a match played under the Rules of a Competition (International Board, June 11th, 1927). This decision is binding only on the four British Associations with regard to International Matches. (International Board, June 11th, 1932).
Dimensions of Field of Play.	The field of play shall be as shown in the plan at the end of these Laws, subject to the following provisions: The dimensions of the field of play shall be—maximum length, 130 yards; minimum length, 100 yards; maximum breadth, 100 yards; minimum breadth, 50 yards.
Marking out ground.	The field of play shall be marked by boundary lines. The lines at each end are the goal-lines, and the lines at the sides are the touch-lines. The		Flag-staffs with pointed tops must not be used. The touch and goal-lines must be marked by a V-shaped rut.

LAWS OF THE GAME.

Six-a-side and similar irregular competitions where gate money is taken are forbidden unless the consent of the County Association has been obtained, and registered Referees must not act in such unregistered competitions.	Secretaries are responsible for ascertaining that all competitions in which their clubs compete are properly sanctioned. Matches are forbidden on Sundays in the United Kingdom.	Except through accident, a player must not leave the field of play during the progress of the game without the permission of the Referee. He can only return when play is suspended and must report to the Referee. Taking any part in Sunday football in the United Kingdom is prohibited.
Refuse to sanction play if danger is likely to accrue to players from the state of the ground. As to the weather, use your own judgment, but do not needlessly spoil sport.	The size of 115 yards by 75 yards is the most general, but attention should be paid to the requirements of the Rules of Competitions in which clubs take part.

A half-way line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark, and a circle with a 10 yards' radius shall be made round it.		(International Board, June 16th, 1902.)
The Goals.	The goals shall be upright posts fixed on the goal-lines, equi-distant from the corner flag-staffs, 8 yards apart, with a bar across them 8 feet from the ground. The maximum width of the goal-posts and the maximum depth of the cross-bar shall be 5 inches.	If a player wilfully displaces a flag or goal-post, or pulls down a bar he shall be cautioned, and if play is stopped it must be resumed by the Referee dropping the ball in accordance with Law 16.

The Referee must caution any player wilfully displacing flags or goal-posts, or pulling down the bar, and if repeated he should order the offender off the field of play.	The surface of the bars or posts facing the field of play must not be more than five inches in width. Tape or any substance not of a rigid nature must not be used in the place of a bar. Goal nets are strongly recommended. Have the goal-posts and bars painted white so as to be distinctly seen. Provide light coloured corner flags. See that the goal nets are properly pegged down and in order before every match, and that there are no holes or possible openings for the escape of the ball.	Goal-keepers to save a shot or to get hold of the ball sometimes seize the bar and pull it down. Any player wilfully displacing a flag or goal-post, or bar, is guilty of misconduct.

The Goal Area.	LAW I (continued). Lines shall be marked 6 yards from each goal-post at right angles to the goal-lines for a distance of 6 yards, and these shall be connected with each other by a line parallel to the goal-lines; the space within these lines shall be the goal area.
The Penalty Area.	Lines shall be marked 18 yards from each goal-post at right angles to the goal-lines for a distance of 18 yards, and these shall be connected with each other by a line parallel to the goal-lines; the space within these lines shall be the penalty area. A suitable mark shall be made opposite the centre of each goal, 12 yards from the goal-line; this shall be the penalty-kick mark.
The Ball.	The circumference of the ball shall not be less than 27 inches, nor more than 28 inches. The outer casing of the ball must be of leather, and no material shall be used in the construction of the ball which would constitute a danger to the players.

If these, or other lines, required by Law 1, are not properly marked, require this to be done before a match, if time permits. It is advisable to visit the ground in good time and see that everything is in order.	The home club is responsible for the proper marking out of the ground.	Players should read and make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the Laws of the Game and Instructions to Referees.
	The ball should be supplied by the home club. See that the ball is fully inflated, and that there are reserve balls close at hand.	When players know the Laws of the Game and understand the Referees' powers and duty, there will be less questioning Referees' decisions.

How a Goal is Scored.	LAW 4. Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal shall be scored when the ball has passed between the goal-posts under the bar, not being thrown, knocked on, nor carried by any player of the attacking side.		The whole of the ball must have passed over the goal-line, or touch-line, before it is out of play. (International Board.) KNOCKING ON and carrying are both forms of handling the ball.

Instructions to Referees

The words "not being thrown" cover a throw-in from touch, so that if a player throws the ball in from touch through the opponents' goal it would be a goal-kick for the defending side and not a goal.

It is possible for the ball to roll all along the goal-line and for the greater part of it to be over the line, and yet not pass through the goal. The goal-keeper may be behind the goal-line and yet prevent a goal.

A Referee must under no circumstances allow a goal unless he is absolutely satisfied that the whole of the ball has passed through the goal.

In catching the ball or fisting out, a goal-keeper sometimes allows the ball to pass into goal in mid air, and the Referee may consider that the whole of the ball crosses the line. If so, and he is in a good position to judge, he must give a goal.

It is difficult to judge unless one is close up, hence it is necessary for the Referee to follow the ball closely up

Instructions to Secretaries

The necessity for the goal-line between the posts being clearly marked is emphasised by the requirements of this Law.

How result of game is decided.	A game shall be won by the team scoring the greater number of goals. If no goals have been scored, or the scores are equal at the end of the game, the game shall be drawn.
If bar displaced.	If from any cause during the progress of the game the bar is displaced, the Referee shall have power to award a goal if in his opinion the ball would have passed under the bar if it had not been displaced.
If Ball rebounds from goal-posts, &c.	The ball is in play if it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar, or a corner flag-staff into the field of play. The ball is in play if it touches the Referee or a Linesman when in the field of play.

	It is important that Secretaries should see that the bars are securely fixed to the posts.	A Goal-keeper must not pull down the bar.
The ball touching the Referee or a Linesman when he is in the field of play is still in play, though it might otherwise have gone into touch or over the goal-line. Linesmen should follow the game close to the touch-line and keep out of the field of play.

Ball crossing lines, out of Play.	LAW 4 (continued). The ball is out of play when it has crossed the goal-line or touch-line, either on the ground or in the air.
The Throw-in.	LAW 5. When the ball is in touch, a player of the opposite side to that which played it out shall throw it in from the point on the touch-line where it left the field of play. The player throwing the ball must stand on both feet on or outside the touch-line, facing the field of play, and shall throw the ball in over his head with both hands in any direction, and it shall be in play when thrown in. In the event of an infringement of the foregoing the throw-in shall revert to the opposite side. A goal shall not be scored from a throw-in, and the thrower shall not again play the ball until it has been played by another player. Infringement of this portion of the Law shall be penalised by a free-kick being awarded to the opposite side.	If the player does not throw the ball in properly, a throw-in must revert to the opposite side. If the thrower plays the ball before it is played by another player a free-kick from which a goal cannot be scored direct must be awarded to the opposite side.	TOUCH is that part of the ground on either side of the field of play. If the ball has been kicked into touch, but before the ball is thrown in a player deliberately kicks an opponent, play should be resumed by a throw-in, and the player dealt with by a caution or ordered off the field. (Council, June 23rd, 1934.)

The ball going into touch in mid air and afterwards alighting in the field of play is out of play.		The ball may roll along the touch-line or goal-line and still be in play. The whole of the ball must have passed over and be clear of the touch-line or goal-line before it is out of play.
The Linesman should point with his flag to the place where the ball went into touch and stand away from the thrower to watch the throw-in. If the player does not throw the ball in properly, the Referee must award a throw-in to the opposite side. An improper throw would be one delivered over the shoulder, or with one hand giving the impetus and the other merely guiding the ball, or if the thrower had either foot or both within the field of play at the moment of throwing, or if he merely dropped the ball and did not throw it. A player throwing-in the ball must face the field of play.		The practice of claiming for the throw-in when the ball goes into touch is far too prevalent and is unnecessary. LET THE LINESMAN GIVE HIS DECISION. All the claiming in the world will not alter it, unless the Referee shall see fit to interfere.

Off-side. See Diagrams pages 50 to 57.	LAW 6. When a player plays the ball, any player of the same side who at such moment of playing is nearer to his opponents' goal-line is out of play, and may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent, or with the play, until the ball has been again played, unless there are at such moment of playing at least two of his opponents nearer their own goal-line. A player is not out of play when the ball is kicked off from goal, when a corner-kick or a throw-in is taken, when the ball has been last played by an opponent, or when he himself is within his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is played by any player of the same side.	Punishment for being adjudged off-side — free-kick from which a goal cannot be scored direct.	It is not a breach of the Law for a player to be in an off-side position, but only when in that position he interferes with an opponent, or with the play. If a player who is in an off-side position advances towards an opponent, or the ball, and in so doing causes the play to be affected, he should be penalised. (International Board, June 14th, 1924.) If a player deliberately trips an opponent who is standing in an off-side position within the penalty area, and who does not attempt to play the ball or obstruct, a penalty kick should be awarded. A flag may be placed opposite the half-way line on each side of the field of play, but it must be at least one yard from the touch-line, and on a staff not less than 5 feet high. (International Board.)

Instructions to Referees

A player who is in his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is last played cannot be off-side.

The point to notice is not where a player is when he plays the ball, but where he WAS at the moment it was played by a player of the same side. In the rush of a game a Referee is apt to lose sight of the positions of the players at every kick, yet he ought to fix each change on his mind. If a player is behind the ball when it is played he cannot possibly be off-side, but if he is in front of it he is liable to be so. Though a player cannot be off-side when an opponent last plays the ball, or when a corner-kick, a throw-in from touch, or a goal-kick, is taken, this protection ceases the moment a second player plays the ball, so that a player not off-side in position when such kick or throw-in is taken, may, without having moved, be off-side as soon as the ball has been next played one of his own side. A player

Instructions to Players

A player who is in his own half of the field of play at the moment the ball is last played cannot be off-side.

A player once off-side cannot put himself on-side. This can be done for him in three ways:—(i.) If an opponent next plays the ball; (ii.) If he is behind the ball when it is next played by one of his own side; (iii.) If he has TWO opponents between him and their goal-line when the ball is played by one of his own side further from his opponents' goal than himself.

The ball hitting the goal-post or bar and rebounding does not put a player on-side who was off-side when the ball was last played.

Take care that when the ball is played by one of your own side except when he is taking a goal-kick, a corner-kick, or a throw-in you have two opponents between you and their goal-line or that you are behind the ball. Can anything be more simple? If your opponent

An opponent playing the ball puts a player on-side at once. While in an off-side position a player must not interfere in any way with an opponent or with the play. If a player is in an off-side position but is not interfering with the play, he must not be penalised. The International Board have made it plain that a player who is in an off-side position, is bound to keep out of the way of the play, and that he is liable to be penalised if in any manner his presence causes any interference with the play. When the ball is kicked off from either goal no player is off-side. The provision of flags opposite the half-way line is optional. The object is to assist the Referee and Linesmen to determine the position of the half-way line when they are at distance or when the line has become indistinct.		plays the ball, or the ball touches him in any way, you are on-side no matter where you stand, but when standing in an off-side position you have no right to interfere with an opponent nor to station yourself so near the goal-keeper, or any other opponent, as to hamper his movements, or obstruct his sight of the ball. When a player finds he is in an off-side position it is his duty to keep clear of the play and neither interfere with nor inconvenience an opponent, nor make a pretence of doing so.

In either case an opponent shall not be allowed within ten yards of the ball until it is kicked off, and the kicker shall not again play the ball until it has been played by another player.	If a goal-kick or a corner-kick has been taken in accordance with Law 7 and the kicker plays the ball again before it has been played by another player a free-kick must be awarded to the opposite side, from which a goal cannot be scored direct. A goal may be scored direct from a corner-kick but not from a goal-kick.	It is not permissible for the goal-keeper to receive the ball into his hands from a goal-kick by another player in order that he may thereafter kick it into play; the ball must be kicked direct from the goal area into play, and if not kicked beyond the penalty area the kick shall be re-taken. This is an important Law, as by enforcing it and taking the initiative where he sees necessary, a Referee can prevent rough play developing. He can stop the game at any time and give a free-kick and/or caution against any player whose conduct or play is dangerous or likely to cause injury, or he may order him off. The free-kick must be taken from the place where the infringement occurred. Jumping at an opponent must of necessity be intentional, and this differs from jumping to play the ball.	Bring before the notice of your Committee any conduct on the part of a member of your club which is likely to bring the game into disrepute. If persisted in a club ought not to allow any such offender to continue to belong to it, for not only may such conduct bring punishment on the player but it gives the club a bad name and may lead to a more serious trouble. Use all means in your power to stop the practice of players using bad language, or addressing observations to, or at, the Referee on or off the field.	The offence is aggravated if a player has previously been cautioned. A player ordered off for foul play is liable to suspension. A player who retaliates when fouled is equally liable to punishment.

The ball shall be in play when a kick is taken, and a goal may be scored from a penalty-kick; but the ball shall not be again played by the kicker until it has been played by another player. If necessary, time of play shall be extended to admit of the penalty-kick being taken. The penalty-kick can only be awarded for the following nine offences, intentionally committed by a player of the defending side within the penalty area :—

1. Tripping an opponent.
2. Kicking an opponent.
3. Striking an opponent.
4. Jumping at an opponent.
5. Handling the ball.
6. Holding an opponent.
7. Pushing an opponent.
8. Charging an opponent violently or dangerously.
9. Charging an opponent from behind.

The goal-keeper must not move from the position he takes up on his goal-line, nor may a player rush in from his place outside the penalty area, until the ball has been kicked. If he does so he may be cautioned, and on repeating the offence be ordered off the field of play.

The kick must be forward.

The Referee is empowered not to enforce a penalty-kick, if to do so would benefit the offenders. Also if a penalty-kick is awarded, and scores, the Referee must ignore any infringement by the defenders, and let the goal stand.

DEFINITION OF TERMS.

- Place-kick. A PLACE-KICK is a kick at the ball while it is on the ground in the centre of the field of play.

NOTE :—The Players marked ⊗ are attacking the goal, and those marked ○ are defending.

No. 1. OFF-SIDE.

CLEAR PASS TO ONE OF SAME SIDE

A has run the ball up, and having D in front passes to B. B is off-side because there are not two opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball is passed by A.

If B waits for E to fall back before he shoots, this will not put him in play, because it does not alter his position with relation to A at the moment the ball was passed by A.

No. 2. NOT OFF-SIDE.

A has run the ball up, and having D in front passes across the field. B runs from position 1 to position 2. B is not off-side because at the moment the ball was passed by A he was behind the ball, and had two opponents between him and the goal-line.

No. 3. OFF-SIDE.

A and B make a passing run up the wing. A passes the ball to B who cannot shoot because he has D in front. A then runs from position 1 to position 2 where he receives the ball from B. A is off-side because he had not two opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball was played by B.

No. 4. OFF-SIDE.

RUNNING BACK FOR BALL

A centres the ball. B runs back from position 1 to position 2, and then dribbles between D and E and scores. B is off-side because he had not two opponents between him and the goal-line at the moment the ball was played by A.

No. 5. OFF-SIDE.

RUNNING BACK FOR BALL (continued)

A makes a high shot at goal, and the wind and screw carry the ball back. B runs from position 1 to position 2 and scores. B is off-side because he had not two opponents between him and the goal-line at the moment the ball was last played by A.

No. 6. OFF-SIDE.

SHOT AT GOAL RETURNED BY GOAL-KEEPER

A shoots at goal. The ball is played by C and B obtains possession, but slips and passes the ball to F who scores. F is off-side because he is in front of B, and when the ball was passed by B he had not two opponents between him and the goal-line.

No. 7. NOT OFF-SIDE.

A shoots at goal. The ball is played out by C but B obtains possession and scores, B has not two opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball is played by A, but he is not off-side because the ball has been last played by an opponent C

No. 8. OFF-SIDE.

BALL REBOUNDING FROM GOAL POSTS OR GOAL BAR

A shoots for goal and the ball rebounds from the goal-post into play. B secures the ball and scores. B is off-side because the ball is last played by A, a player of his own side, and when A played it B had not two opponents between him and the goal-line, and was in front of A.

No. 9. OFF-SIDE.

BALL REBOUNDING FROM GOAL POSTS OR GOAL BAR (continued)

A shoots for goal and the ball rebounds from the cross-bar into play. A follows up from position 1 to position 2, and then passes to B who has run up on the other side. B is off-side because the ball is last played by A, a player of his own side, and when A played it B had not two opponents between him and the goal-line, and was in front of A. If A had scored himself at the second attempt, instead of passing to B, it would have been a goal.

No. 10. NOT OFF-SIDE.

BALL TOUCHING AN OPPONENT

A shoots at goal. D runs from position 1 to position 2 to intercept the ball, but it glances off his foot to B who scores. B is not off-side because, although he has not two opponents between him and the goal-line, the ball was last played by an opponent D

No. 11. OFF-SIDE.

OBSTRUCTING THE GOAL-KEEPER

A shoots for goal and scores. B however obstructs C so that he cannot get at the ball. The goal must be disallowed, because B is in an off-side position and may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent.

No. 12. OFF-SIDE.

A shoots for goal. B runs in while the ball is in transit and prevents C playing it properly. B is off-side because he is in front of A and has not two opponents between him and the goal-line when A plays the ball. When in this position B may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent.

No. 13. OFF-SIDE.

OBSTRUCTING AN OPPONENT OTHER THAN THE GOAL-KEEPER

A shoots for goal. B prevents E running in to intercept the ball. B is off-side because he is in front of A and has not two opponents between him and the goal-line when A plays the ball. When in this position B may not touch the ball himself, nor in any way whatever interfere with an opponent.

No. 14. OFF-SIDE.

AFTER A CORNER-KICK

A takes a corner-kick and the ball goes to B. B shoots for goal and as the ball is passing through F touches it. F is off-side because after the corner-kick has been taken the ball is last played by B, a player of his own side, and when B played it F had not two opponents between him and the goal-line.

No. 15. NOT OFF-SIDE.

A takes a corner-kick and the ball goes to B who puts it through goal. B has only one opponent between him and the goal-line, but he is not off-side because a player is not out of play when a corner-kick is taken.

No. 16. NOT OFF-SIDE.

A takes a corner-kick and the ball glances off D and goes to B, who puts it through goal. B has only one opponent between him and the goal-line, but he is not off-side because the ball was last played by an opponent D

No. 17. OFF-SIDE.

AFTER A THROW-IN FROM THE TOUCH-LINE

A throws to B and then runs from position 1 to position 2. B passes the ball to A in position 2. A is off-side because he has not two opponents between him and the goal-line when the ball is passed forward to him by B.

No. 18. NOT OFF-SIDE.

AFTER A THROW-IN FROM THE TOUCH-LINE (continued)

A throws the ball to B. Although B has not two opponents between him and the goal-line, he is not off-side because a player is not out of play when a throw-in is taken.

No. 19. OFF-SIDE.

A PLAYER CANNOT PUT HIMSELF ON-SIDE BY RUNNING BACK INTO HIS OWN HALF OF THE FIELD OF PLAY.

If A is in his opponents' half of the field of play, and is off-side in position when B last played the ball, he cannot put himself on-side by moving back into

No. 20. NOT OFF-SIDE.

PLAYER WITHIN HIS OWN HALF OF THE FIELD OF PLAY NOT OFF-SIDE WHEN HE ENTERS HIS OPPONENTS' HALF OF THE FIELD OF PLAY.

If A is in his own half of the field of play he is on-side, although there were not two opponents nearer their own goal-line when B last played the ball. A is therefore on-side when he enters his opponents' half of the field of play.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE GUIDANCE OF REFEREES

Referees must strictly enforce the Laws of the Game, and the Decisions of the International Board and the Council of The Football Association.

1.—Referees when cautioning a player must use the word “caution,” and when taking the player’s name should intimate to the player that if he is again guilty of ungentlemanly conduct he will be ordered off. The caution should not be an idle threat. In all cases in which players are cautioned the Referee must, when the Clubs to which the players belong are in Full Membership with The Football Association, report to that Association; and in all other cases to the County Association with which the Clubs are in Membership. If a Referee fails to report misconduct which came under his notice, and it is proved to the satisfaction of the Council that such misconduct was of a nature that required investigation, he will be suspended or otherwise dealt with.

2.—In the case of violent conduct, the defaulting player should be ordered off the field without previous caution.

3.—Referees should not allow players to argue with them. If a player persists he should be cautioned at once, and if he again offends the player should be ordered off. Referees who do not insist on their decisions being respected are always inviting trouble. Neither when on nor off the field should Referees discuss or argue about decisions.

4.—If a player is injured the Referee should not stop play until the ball goes out of play unless he is satisfied that the injury is serious. The trainer has no right to enter the field of play until the Referee signals for him to do so. Clubs are held responsible for offences committed by trainers. Unnecessary stoppages are very annoying. The Decisions of the Council and International Board must be observed.

5.—See that goal-kicks and free-kicks are properly taken, particularly that the ball is stationary in the proper position before the kick is taken; that the ball travels at least 27 inches before it is played by a second player or handled by the goal-keeper; and that all opponents are at least 10 yards distant from the ball when the kick is taken, unless they are standing on their own goal-line. Players must wait for signal from the Referee, but this should not be delayed so that the advantage gained be lost.

6.—In cases of deliberate kicking out, delay in taking goal-kicks and free-kicks, or preventing them being taken, such as kicking the ball away when a free-kick has been given, if done with the intention of wasting time, the offender should be cautioned.

7.—Neither tripping, kicking, striking, nor jumping at a player shall be allowed. A player shall not intentionally handle the ball. A player shall not use his hands to hold or push an opponent. Charging must not be discouraged unless violent or dangerous. Attention is drawn to the last paragraph of Official Decisions (page 24). Referees must use their powers to the utmost to suppress rough play and ungentlemanly conduct. A player shall not be charged from behind unless he is intentionally obstructing an opponent. Persistent infringement of any of the Laws of the Game is ungentlemanly conduct within the meaning of this Law. Too often the Referee is satisfied by ordering a free-kick, and the infringements persist throughout the game. Referees are reminded, and required, to exercise strictly the powers given them.

8.—The attention of Referees is called to an improper interpretation of Law 6. It is not a breach of the Law for a player to be in an off-side position, but only when in that position he interferes with an opponent, or with the play. If a player who is in an off-side position advances towards an opponent, or the ball, and in so doing causes the play to be affected, he should be penalised.

9.—Linesmen who observe incidents on the field of play likely to bring the game into disrepute must, if such incidents have not come under the notice of the Referee, immediately report them to him. A Referee should, however, not accede to the report of Linesmen when he has seen the whole incident and can form a more reliable judgment by reason of his position on the field of play. When the Referee has once given his decision and play has been resumed he must not alter it. Linesmen should make themselves conversant with the Instructions to Referees and Linesmen contained in the Referees' Chart. The duties of Linesmen must not be restricted, but intelligent co-operation is essential so that every section of play is under the scrutiny of at least one of the officials no matter how quickly play may be transferred from one part of the field to another. When the ball is in the penalty area it is particularly essential that Referees be close to the play.

10.—The attention of Referees is especially directed to the instructions given by Law 17, that they may refrain from putting the provisions of the Law into effect in cases where they are satisfied that by enforcing them they would be giving an advantage to the offending side. For instance, if a goal is deliberately prevented by the improper use of his hand by a defender, and an attacker immediately receives the ball and scores, the Referee should award a goal and not a penalty-kick. When a penalty-kick is taken and a goal scored therefrom, it must only be retaken in case of an infringement by the attacking side. Any infringement by defenders should be ignored. Similarly, if a goalkeeper moved before the kick is taken, in the event of a score the breach of law by the goalkeeper should be ignored.

The spirit of the Law and the power to refrain, is that wrongdoers should not benefit by their wrongdoing.

The duty of Referees is to administer justice fairly and fearlessly. A firm controlling hand in the opening minutes of a game will prove invaluable to all concerned. It will indicate that a rigid control is possible by the Officials; be apparent to Players that unfair play will not be tolerated and obtain from them and Spectators the respect which is due.

Referees must always punish the more serious of two offences committed simultaneously.

Referees must keep physically fit. They should always conduct and control games in such a manner as will win the respect of Players and Spectators. Only well-trained and athletic Officials can do this.

The Council is of the opinion that the task of the Referee will be made easier by the whole-hearted co-operation of all concerned in earnestly trying to carry out the above Decisions and Instructions.
